NEWSLETTER MARCH 2013

GLASGOW FEIS: excellent performances from everyone. Well done!

ST. PATRICK'S FESTIVAL: starting this Thursday, there is a full programme of events to cater for all tastes. Of particular interest is the concert on Friday, 15th, in the Couper Institute, where our 15+ musicians will be starring, alongside some surprise guests. On Saturday, 16th, there is a full afternoon's FREE entertainment from 12-6pm in Merchant Square. St. Roch's Ceili Band will start off the proceedings from 12-1, so don't be late! Check out the full programme on www.glasgowstpatricksfestival.co.uk.

SATURDAY PRACTICES: 9, 23, 30 March (NOT the 16th), 13, 20, 27 April. U12A 1pm, U15A 2pm, U18 3pm. Other group teachers will advise on extra practices. Please note times. Anyone who cannot manage should alert their teacher.

SCOTTISH REGIONAL FLEADH: Sun 28th April in Taylor High School, Carfin.

ST. PATRICK'S NIGHT CEILI: Sat 17th March (funnily enough) in the Couper Institute, 8-11.30pm. Our biggest ceili of the year. We are looking for your support once again, as it is our main fundraiser. Moira has tickets.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY GAELIC MASS: 17th March, Our Lady of Consolation, 1pm. Our branch always provides musicians and we are looking for more to play. If interested, see Frank for music. The Gaelic League choir will be practising tonight in St. Roch's.

CONCERT IN COUPER INSTITUTE: Fri 15th March: those who are playing should give their names to Frank tonight.

SENIOR GRUPA CHEOIL: Those wishing to play should give their names to Frank. Practices starting soon.

PARENTS MEETING: Tuesday, 12th March at 7pm.
